

Preliminary Program
Re-/Searching to Transgress
Collaborative Formats and Practices of Social-ecological Transformation

Heinrichstraße 36, 8010 Graz

Extended deadline for registration: 15.03.2025 Please register here: transgress2025@uni-graz.at

THURSDAY, 10.04.2025
09:00–10:00	Registration and Get-Together (Foyer)
10:00–10:30	Welcome and Opening Remarks (Room 11.03)
SESSION I	TRACK A: Participating Towards Regional Futures (Room 11.03)	TRACK B: Co-Creating Just Cities (Room 11.04)
10:45–12:15	Michael Klingler, Fiona de Fontana Challenges and potentials of co-designing socially just policy interventions systems: Mapping the intersections of housing and energy vulnerability with affected citizens and stakeholders	Tabea Thomsen, Rainer Mehren Inside Marxloh: Empowering self-efficacy among migrant females through alternative city tours
	Selina Straßer SCIENCE_LINKnockberge – Weaving Sustainable Pathways	Christina Plank, Hendrik Theine, Lisa Lorenz, Ernest Aigner Arts-based participatory action research for urban climate-social futures
	Veronika Gaube, Barbara Smetschka Participatory modelling and knowledge integration in Long-term socio-ecological regions (LTSER)	Fabian Pettig, Daniela Lippe, Karoline Stöcklmayr, Anke Strüver, Ulrich Ermann Eating to Transgress: Researching Sustainable Food Practices with Young People
12:15–13:30	Lunch Break
SESSION II	TRACK A: Transdisciplinarity in Urban Planning (Room 11.03)	TRACK B: Reimagining Ways of Collaboration (Room 11.04)
13:30–15:00	Atsede Desta, Kumela Gudeta, Daniel Semenukus, Elisabeth Huber, Tania Berger Particularities of conducting transdisciplinary processes on questions of urban transition in Ethiopia: Reflections on expectations and challenges	Bruno Chichizola Everybody shaman now! A posthumanism approach to living lab action research project for landscape restoration
	Lisa Wieczorek Shaping the Mobility Transition Together - Opportunities and Challenges of Transdisciplinary, Participatory Projects at the Intersection of School, Civil Society, Politics, and Academia	Johanna Trummer, Lucas Weinberg, Suzanne Kapelari, Lars Keller Freeze for Future: Young people create virtual glacier worlds to foster social-ecological transformations through climate change education - Experiences and insights into a transdisciplinary, citizen science project
	David Spenger, Leah Burgard Transformative research in urban planning contexts: The real-world college as a transdisciplinary research format	Sabine Hostniker, Ernst Michael Preininger Sailing uncharted seas. Exploring the unpredictable with improvisational theater as methodological laboratory in social research
15:00–15:30	Coffee Break
SESSION III	TRACK A: Transforming Higher Education (Room 11.03)	TRACK B: Workshop (Room 11.04)
15:30–17:30	Holger Hoff, Sophie Hohenwarter Transdisciplinarity - welcome in principle	Kristine Samson Storying relations to the land through food
	Madeleine Wagner, Jörg Knieling, Ulrike Weiland Expectations and Realities of Transformative Teaching: Insights from Spatial Study Programs
	Marta López Cifuentes, Valentin Fiala, Lisa Kaufmann and Marianne Penker A paradox theory perspective on tensions in inter- and transdisciplinary research
	Karin Oberauer, Johann Stötter, Lars Keller Universities as Role models of Change: University Educators Collaboratively Reshape Their Courses towards Interdisciplinary Education for Sustainable Development. Insights to a University Project to Further Develop Education Formats
17:30–18:00	Networking Opportunity/Exchange
18:00	Keynote (Room 11.03) Carlie Trott: Prefigurative Methodologies for the Capitalocene: Socio-ecological Transformation from Below
19:30	Conference Dinner

FRIDAY, 11.04.2025
SESSION IV	TRACK A: Shaping Regional Development (Room 11.03)	TRACK B: Workshop (Room 11.04)
09:00–11:00	Jörn Harfst, Jasmin Sandriester Collaborative learning in transnational projects? Insights from post-industrial transformations Johannes Suitner, Camilla Chlebna, Constanze Fetting, Armin Kratzer, Lotta Eriksson, Elsa Ventrubá, Seija Tuulentie, Stefan Philipp Co-creating climate adaptation governance. Reflecting on a transdisciplinary research approach to developing transformative capacities in European mountain regions Markus Sattler, Lela Rekhviashvili Transdisciplinarity in Grassroots Responses to Green Transitions Marina Knickel, Guido Caniglia, Nora Hein Navigating justice in TD collaboration towards more sustainable land use	Christina Plank, Iris Laner and Monika Mayer Creating urban climate-social futures
11:00–11:30	Coffee Break
SESSION V	TRACK A: Doing Science with Society (Room 11.03)	TRACK B: Collaborating Towards Food Transitions (Room 11.04)
11:30–13:00	Johannes Schulz Transformative Inquiry-Based Learning: Exploring Student Perceptions and Experiences of an Upper Secondary School Intervention Hannah Lathan, Madelaine Uxa, Leif Mönter Planetary Health – An Integrative Approach with transformative potential for education, research, and practice Judith Fischer Why not share the classroom?	Lilian Pungas, Saara Mildeberg, Annela Samuel Building Bridges with Gardeners' Day: A Tribute to Overlooked Food Self-Provisioning Practice through Transdisciplinary Dialogue and Co-creation Leo Webb Spoilt for choice? A mixed-methods ethnographic study into the socio-cultural lives of community fridges and the affectiveness of surplus food David Steinwender, Sandra Karner Gaia Gartenberg: Learning about perspectives on diversity and biodiversity in a garden for and by women*
13:00–13:30	Mix and Stir: Collaborative Wrap Up and Outlook (Room 11.03)
14:30–17:00	Optional Field trip GAIA women*s garden: sharing stories about the co-creation of a 'brave space' Starting Point: Heinrichstraße 36, 8010 Graz

Extended deadline for registration: 15.03.2025
Please register here: transgress2025@uni-graz.at